

What words best describe the Arts, Culture & Heritage sector in the region?

Describe the impacts that tech and innovation will have on the sector?

More visibility

We need the arts even more to ensure our humanity

Potential for a broader reach for small organizations

Redefining "arts" Culture is the tie that binds communities

negligible

The lucrative film industry in BC is drawing technicians (especially young technicians) away from the live-performance industry. Colleges and universities are graduation fewer qualified theatre/concert technicians each year.

New meaning of what is classified as art.

Increases expectations of availability

Using tech to help create a strong, unified brand.

